MEMORANDUM FOR: DCI Security Committee Members

FROM:

Chairman

SUBJECT: Personnel Security Lessons Learned

Attached for your information are press comments on the Geoffrey Arthur Prime case from the 11 November 1982 issue of the London, England, Daily Telegraph. The Crown prosecutor's statements reported in these clippings paint a picture of Prime as a security officer's nightmare. Himself a victim of childhood molestation, he became a molester as an adult. The child of an unhappy marriage, his own first marriage collapsed. Upon the death of his parents and his own loss of religious faith, he sought a new "anchor" in the Soviets. Seriously depressed in 1972, he sought psychiatric counsel. Other statements made in open court on this case identify instances of undetected photocopying of classified material and its removal from official premises and undetected travel to the Soviet Bloc. The lessons to be learned from this by us are obvious.
